▣ Making Payments

Taknology offers convenient ways for resellers to make payments; in person, via mail, and online banking. The prefer payment method is online banking. Online Banking

Add Taknology (Canada) Inc. as payee and make payments with online banking.

We're able to accept online payments through the following financial institutions: CIBC, Scotia Bank, TD Canada Trust, Bank of Montreal, Royal Bank.

To add Taknology as a payee, login to your bank account. Select Create/Update payee list, search for company name Taknology (Canada) Inc., enter your eight digit alphanumeric account number, which was provided to you when your reseller account was setup. Should you need to obtain your account number, you may contact order desk or your sales representative.

For more information about online banking, check with your financial institution. When ordering online, clients may choose to make payment with online banking. When payment has been verified, products will be released. This generally takes up to one business day to process.
